Re: Letter Approving LU 113 Elections in October

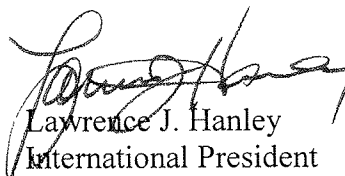

Dear Brother Morton:

This is in response to your email inquiry of June 13, 2017, seeking our position on recent actions by Local 113's Executive Board setting the dates for conducting nominations and the interim election to vacant positions.

Please be advised that our review of the local union's motions and actions are limited to a determination as to whether such constitute a violation of the ATU Constitution and General Laws. Based upon our review, we find that the motions approved by the executive board are not inconsistent with the ATU Constitution and General Laws.

I trust this responds to your concerns.

In solidarity,

Lawrence J. Hanley
International President
